TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

Sant Longowal Institute of Engineering and Technology (SLIET), Longowal, Distt Sangrur (Punjab) has the modular education pattern in which, 10th pass students are admitted to two year Certificate Programmes and the pass-out certificate students and external 10+2 pass students are admitted to two-year Diploma Programmes. Therefore, the Diploma programme is of four years duration after matriculation (10th class) which is one year more than the conventional Diploma Programme (of three years after 10th class) offered by other Technical Institutions.

It is further certified that these programmes are being run after statutory approvals from the MHRD, New Delhi, vide their Notification No. 42 dated 8th March, 1995 and the AICTE, New Delhi, vide their letter No. F.765-65-031(E)/ET/97 dated 4th July, 1997 (copies enclosed for ready reference). Accordingly, the students of SLIET, Longowal are at par with all other Technical Institutions offering the Diploma Programmes.
